SUICIDE OF BRIDE-TO-BE. While her fiance, David Nathan, was n the county building in Chicago geting a marriage license for the wedding that was to have taken place Thursday Miss Annie Neyberg, the bride-to-be, with her prospective mother-in-law, who, on learning of the wedding plans, objected. Miss Neyburg came to the flat which Nathan had furnished and met him about noon. She was to accompany im to the marriage license bureau, but decided to remain and tidy up the flat. It was then Nathan told her that his mother had learned of the wedding and did not approve of it. He advised his ntended bride not to stay at the flat, but to come with him, saying that his mother might come and make trouble The young woman protested that she was not afraid, and Nathan left her. An hour afterward, according to the story told by Thomas Cairns, a watchman, the mother entered the flat. Words followed and then a shot was fired. Cairns rushed into the building, By buying FLOUR by the barrel. Your and found Miss Neyburg lying across a couch with a revolver in her hand. Blood was streaming from a wound in
